

Hello Campers & Families

Week 7 was our final week of camp with a theme of 'Coolio Carnival'

What a wonderful final week of camp to close out our summer.

We started off on Monday by creating team names and flags. This week, teams were named The Rizzy Clowns, Clown Chicken, Fried Dough, and The Ferris Wheels to match our Coolio carnival theme. We introduced our annual camp talent show, or Coolio Circus for campers to start brainstorming and practicing their ideas. Monday's activity choices were ultimate frisbee out in the field, a flip book craft inside, and practice time to prepare for Thursday's talent show.

Tuesday was our long awaited field trip to Canobie Lake Park! Despite the hot weather, campers had a blast on all the fun rides and spending time with friends, and stayed cool on the log flume and the Boston Tea Party rides. Many enjoyed some yummy treats including fried dough, ice cream, and slushies. This was such an awesome day to conclude our summer trips.

On Wednesday morning, campers had a special visit from a friendly clown, Ms. Fuzzlebutt (counselor Kaiden). Campers enjoyed the silly magic / comedy show that kept them entertained and laughing for its whole duration. Some campers and counselors volunteered to participate in certain tricks during the performance which made it super fun. In the afternoon, we had our Coolio Carnival out in the field. Campers could roam between several fun games and attractions including a bouncy house, a face painting station, drip drip drop, a put put golf game, ball toss, and more. We cooled off with a cotton candy treat in the AC after all of our fun outside.

On Thursday, our camp game was campers versus counselors dodgeball up at the tennis court. Our 7 counselors put up a good fight, but were defeated 5/5 games to the campers. Activity choices for the day were crackerball, talent show practice, an accordion clown craft inside, and down down down in building 2 to stay cool. Our talent show / Coolio Circus began after lunch at the grandstands. We are so proud of all participating campers and were so impressed with their amazing skills. It was also wonderful to see so many families there for support. All participating campers earned 50 gems for their team for each performance they were in!

We concluded our final week of camp on Friday with some extra special activities. In the morning, we announced our winning team, Camper of the Week, and Camper of the Summer. This is one of our ways of thanking our campers for being the wonderful people they are and for helping to keep Camp Coolio such a fun and safe place for everyone to be. We had a special camp game of Layla's Lazer Maze in our teams. Friday's activity choices were capture the flag, a nature walk, and a fun pinwheel craft inside. During lunch, we had a camp BBQ with Mike where campers were served hot dogs, chips, juice, and frozen treats. And as always, campers had the option to visit Dodge's store.

Week 7 COW! Eli!

When deciding on the Camper of the Week our staff looks for a camper that is: Helpful, shows good sportsmanship, is kind and respectful to other campers and staff, respects camp/town property and equipment.

Our camper of the week for week 7 was Eli! Eli was given our final camper of the week award to due the amount of growth we have witnessed during his time at camp this summer. When a counselor gives corrections he immediately takes them into account, he helps his peers remember expectations, as well as being kind and respectful to our staff.

Thank you Eli for contributing so positively to our Camp community!
We're excited to continue watching you grow!

Camper of the Summer! Oliver!

In addition to our final camper of the week, counselors award one last camper who has shown consistent role model behavior as our Camper of the Summer. This year, we have chosen Oliver as our Camper of the summer! Oliver is polite and kind to everyone he interacts with, is always one of the first people to show counselors respect when we ask for campers' attention, and has a wonderful attitude each day. He has demonstrated all qualities of a model camper consistently throughout his time at Camp Coolio this summer, which is why we feel he is deserving of this award. Congratulations Oliver!

Thank you Oliver for contributing so positively to our Camp community!
